A note about the book

This brief booklet is the result of an intense talk with the Lord over the past couple of years since my wife died. Things have gotten very serious. Increasingly, I've been asking the Lord what He wanted me to do.

We are certainly living in the time of the signs. The generation that won't pass away is now in our seventies. The time is drawing near. It's getting really exciting.

My desire is to get your mind off the troubles in the world. The question is "Are you surprised?" The really bad times won't really hit until after we're gone. But the birth pangs are a bit unpleasant.

I wanted to offer a chance to chill out, take a breath, and look at where we are going—soon.

time to go.

Completing the Messiah's Bride

 October 2021: at my computer, Radiqix production office

The month and a half after Labor Day was a time of intense prayer and self-examination for me. I've never felt so strongly that I need to know what the Lord has for me to do for these final days, weeks, months, and maybe years. I phrase it in that manner because I am very aware of the times we are in and where the Lord is in regard to His Bride—and I know that the leaving of the Bride is imminent. No, I have no date. But it's time to be watching carefully because only those who are eagerly waiting for the Lord's return will hear the upward call.

As it is appointed for men to die once, but after this comes the judgment, so Christ was offered once to bear the sins of many, and He will appear a second time, not to bear sin but to save those who eagerly wait for Him.

[HEBREWS 9:27-28 MEV]

Notice, that He is not coming for Judgment but to save those of us who are eagerly waiting for Him—from the Wrath which is to come. I'll use the Latin term, from the Vulgate, transliterated as Rapture. Yes, the term is in the Bible in the Vulgate, the standard from the 400s to the 1970s.

It all culminated yesterday, when Jesus made it clear to me that I am to share His desire for us [and certain authors—including me]. I have no idea who will respond to His call—though I have my suspicions. But it's an important work which needs to be started or completed now.

What is coming

During the events of the final seven years, it is likely that our books, videos, blogs, podcasts, and so forth will be canceled. I'm sure the Holy Spirit has got some of his people working on providing such things during that time.

But it is obvious that they will need their own servers and secure Web access—isolated from the Tech Giants. Please don't assume that your creative output will be available on Amazon, Facebook, YouTube and all the rest after the Bride has left for the Bema and the wedding. I'm certain most of the believers' digital materials will be canceled—probably within hours—as soon as we're gone.

But that's not what this is about

The Bride is in the process of being completed. Only those of us who make it to the Marriage Supper of the Lamb in Revelation 19 will be there when the consummation occurs. The Tribulation saints will not, as far as I can tell.

Jesus wants us to help with filling out the Bride of the Messiah

This call is for all believers [though I am focused on professional creative people] to work on the completion of the Bride. It's one of the final efforts Jesus is doing as He gets ready for the Father to tell Him it's time to pick us up.

We all know how long it takes to get a book written and published. But I can testify that it is a lot less than many of you think. I experienced that with my final two series. The Holy Spirit anointed me to write, edit, proof, and publish seven novels of a two series tale between late July 2020 and early August 2021.

I may have more books to write before we go, but for now, Yeshua has made it clear that I am to present this calling to the Christians I know. Until this assignment is complete, I can not think of anything else to be doing.

We have two choices: increasing the Bride or saving America

 America, as we know it: is not going to survive

The end of the age is here. We are in prophetic times – Bible times, again. Just recently, there was a major tent revival halfway between where I live in Rochester, New York and Buffalo. The response was phenomenal. A thousand pastors got involved. Many hundreds of volunteers showed up. Opening night happened in pouring rain, yet the large tent was filled to overflowing. Over a thousand stood outside in the rain to hear the evangelist. Hundreds of cars were turned away because there simply wasn't room to park.

Over the four days, hundreds of people were sobbing in repentance. Miraculous healings occurred. The next Great Awakening was announced. But I was disturbed in my spirit. For according to the evangelist, Jesus was waging war to save America.

Truly, increasing the Bride or saving America gets to the heart of our focus

I've been increasingly focused on prophecy in scripture about the times in which we are living. As you know, something over 27% of the Bible is prophecy. Jesus fulfilled many prophecies exactly when He was born in Bethlehem, revealed Almighty God's Truth and Light, and fulfilled His Call at the Cross. His blood shed for us provided forgiveness and salvation to us. He verified his Word by rising from the dead three days later. All was prophesied.

America was founded, in the northern colonies, by people seeking the religious freedom to proclaim and live by that Good News. Hebrew was seriously considered as our national language at Harvard, founded in 1636 as a school for ministers. America grew out of our Jewish and Christian roots serving the Creator of the Universe. And the Lord blessed us for that foundation.

But things changed rapidly after World War Two. Public education was consciously redirected to promote secular humanism, evolution, and the belief that America was now modern enough to realize that we no longer needed God. He was no longer relevant to modern society. I grew up in the fifties. This is the public education I received. Spiritually, we were just coasting.

Everything was turned around when Israel was gathered back to her land

What the world doesn't understand at all is that the prophetic clock for the end of the age of the Gentiles started with Israel's birth in 1948. The church was mainly oblivious, because its vast majority believed that the prophetic statements were myth or allegory. Most of the institutional church still believes that. Increasingly, true saving faith was pushed to the side and the church joined in the effort as America increasingly saw itself as the savior of the world. As we pushed prayer out of school, legalized abortion, welcomed eastern religion into our core, God has left us to do what we will. He won't override our will, yet.

America has become what Paul warned us about in the first chapter of Romans. Beginning in verse sixteen, Paul laid out what we have all experienced since the nineteen fifties. He warned us about what happens when a nation exchanges truth for lies. Here's the essence edited out of verses 21-25: " (Although America) knew God, (we) did not honor Him as God or give thanks, but (we) became futile in (our) reasonings, and (our) senseless hearts were darkened. Claiming to be wise, (we) became fools, and... exchanged the glory of the incorruptible God for (the reasonings and desires of corrupted mankind)... Therefore God gave (us) up to vile impurity in the lusts of (our) hearts, so that (our) bodies would be dishonored among (us). For (we) exchanged the truth of God for falsehood, and worshiped and served the creature rather than the Creator.” It has gotten extremely bad, very quickly.

He finished the chapter with verses 28-32, which I again edit: “as (we) did not see fit to acknowledge God, He gave (the United States) up to a depraved mind, to do those things that are not proper. (Our people have become)... filled with all unrighteousness, wickedness, greed, and evil; full of envy, murder, strife, deceit, and malice; (our people are) gossips, slanderers, haters of God, insolent, arrogant, boastful, inventors of evil, disobedient to parents, without understanding, untrustworthy, unfeeling, and unmerciful; and although (we knew) the ordinance of God, that those who practice such things are worthy of death, (we) not only do the same, but also approve of those who practice them.” We have watched as our country has increasingly shaken its collective fist at God, absolutely defying Him.

To get back to my originally stated focus, I agree with David Reagan, founder of Lamb and Lion Ministries, that the United States has passed the point of no return. As the age of the Gentiles reaches its fullness and passes into history, none of the nations will remain. Prophecy is clear that the globalists will win and take over the entire world. The Green New Deal is just the beginning.

So, what are we supposed to do politically?

First of all, the Lord Jesus has made it clear to me that He is not fighting to save America. Jesus is focused on the completion of His Bride—those of us who have acknowledged our sin, repented, and volunteered to serve Jesus forever. We know who Jesus is, and He has transformed our lives. We have each developed a close personal relationship with Jesus. All of us who have been born of God spend our time constantly talking to Jesus, seeking guidance, accepting His counsel, and simply having fellowship with Him and His Bride.

But the Bride is not complete, yet. How do I know that? Because when we are complete, Jesus will come, as our betrothed husband, and call us up to be with Him in the clouds. Prophecy is clear that Jesus will save us from the Wrath which is justly coming upon the satanic world system. The words used are that He will save us from – not through – God’s Wrath which is coming upon the whole earth to destroy Satan’s world system. Scripture tells us this, specifically, in strong prophetic detail. But the Father will not give Jesus the go ahead to get His Bride until said Bride is complete. The Holy Spirit’s focus is on getting everyone saved who can be saved to make the Bride complete.

So, His focus is increasing the Bride —not saving America. This is our call in these last days, as we eagerly await His upward call. Then the focus will switch to the salvation of Israel.

The encouraging prophetic hope

 This time of trial will end!

The encouraging prophetic hope—within our current state of big brother overreach, societal fragmentation, and evil lying delusion—delivers immense joy to us. The kosmos, Satan's worldly kingdom, will disappear – totally destroyed. The end is near.

Today what I am talking about concerns the Bride. I'm not sure this will be available to the general population in the millennium. But it is almost a sure thing for the redesigned creation after the millennium when Almighty God dissolves this reality in fire and power. It's hard to imagine the changes when He rebuilds it all from scratch.

But for now, I want to talk with the Bride. Do you realize that we will know Jesus as He now knows us? More than that, we will know each other on that level also. Our life will be totally transformed. This is foreseen in the requirement that members of the Bride must be reborn and in an intimate relationship with Jesus. I've written extensively about these matters elsewhere –just search my sites for knowing Jesus, and The Wife Of Jesus.

Our encouraging prophetic hope is found in our marriage to Yeshua

The Holy Spirit touched my life to my core with a fragment of scripture, not too long after I met the Lord in the 1970s. I was studying I Corinthians and arrived at the end of the discussion of love in chapter thirteen. The Lord stunned me with a very simple phrase: I shall know as I am known. My life has been consumed with that wondrous revelation ever since.

I remember in the midst of a normal conversation with my wife, we were talking about questions we have about creation. I think I had mentioned the revelation I just shared. It was one of those delightful talks we had in our marriage. Pat said, “I have this long list of questions about our life. I can hardly wait until I get to heaven to hear the answers.” She went silent. I could almost see everything rearranging in her mind. Then a broad smile lit up her face. “The Lord told me that I’ll just know. The questions will be unnecessary.”

Some of the delights of the millennium

Let me simply list a few things I expect. According to the Lord’s priestly prayer in John 17, we’ll be one with Him and each other like He is with the Father and the Holy Spirit. Just try to imagine that.

I realize the following speculations are almost certainly colored by my preconceptions, but please look for the core of what I am saying. Ask the Holy Spirit to show you the truth about these things, and our coming joy.

As we help in the Kingdom, the Lord will lead us to our assignments as He leads our individual lives now — directly, spirit to spirit, mind to mind. But, the guess work [and need for testing the spirit] will be gone because Satan and his minions will be bound. We’ll know as the Lord knows now. Our work will be pure, righteous, and good. All the confusion will be gone. We’ll have more direct access to the power needed to help those we serve.

As I work on creative projects, I’ll not only have the Lord’s help, as I do now. I will also share that level of communication with other members of the Bride. The ability to share new ideas will go through the roof. A truly humbling concept is that I may be able to have input on some of the things the Lord is doing. I’m convinced that one of the reasons the Lord came up with this plan was the incredibly diverse crop of peculiar individuals He has harvested. He finds joy in our unique solutions and ideas.

I'm just titillating your mind in hopes of sharing our new works. Here's a scripture for this little exploration:

Beloved, now are we children of God, and it has not yet been revealed what we shall be. But we know that when He appears, we shall be like Him, for we shall see Him as He is. [1 JOHN 3: 2 MEV]

Yeshua's arrival in the clouds to pick up His Bride remains imminent and the world will radically change

We will be with Him, completely His, forever. We all will. What a marriage that will be once it is consummated! But many have simply not realized how far this goes. The resurrected Church will be done away with—as it is converted to the intimacy of heavenly marriage.

The Earth will go on. The King will be ruling a redeemed Israel. The church will no longer exist in the Kingdom. We will be one with our husband, King Jesus. Of course, that won't be His name [REVELATION 3:12 NASB]. The knowledge of the Lord will fill the earth. The people on earth will believe, but have their own lives.

Our marriage won't be like many have experienced up 'til now. We'll be the spouse of the King, His helpmate, and His joy. We'll understand much better what it means to be nourished and cherished. We'll help Him rule. We will be part of His conversations as He rules the radically remodeled earth. But more on that in a bit.

What will be gone?

The Kosmos will be gone. This is the Greek term used for Satan's world system. The one in which we are immersed now—stinky, smelly, nasty, painful, depraved, distorted, lying, hopeless, and all the rest. But what will be gone? Most of what we consider normal. For many of us, everything we do day to day will disappear.

The Kosmos includes:

Government: You know, government first showed up in Babel. It's part of the enemy's attack on humanity—using us against God. Remember, the Kingdom is not an organization, it's an organism—led and headed by King Jesus. All control will be in the hands of the Messiah. He can handle direct communication with all of us at the same time [as He is doing now, but much more clear and direct]. We are called the Body of the Messiah for a reason.

Politics: With the new direct, instant communication between anyone and the king, the whole idea of government will be seen for the immoral oppression it has always been. We won't need representatives. The only method which works is a benevolent omniscient monarch—and we'll have that. What a King He is!

Commerce: Will money exist? My opinion, maybe. But I'm expecting something more loose and free—like the Shakers, maybe? Barter? I expect daily needs to simply be available. Everyone does what they are good at, for the benefit of the community in which they live. Everyone shares freely to meet any need.

Outside of Jerusalem, the Bible has almost nothing good to say about cities, for example. We'll probably be in communities [even if those communities are inside larger cities] where we know everyone within easy walking distance. Of course, as the spouse, we'll travel at the speed of thought, through walls, and all of that. Will that level of teleportation be available on the Earth? I don't know. It certainly was in the Gospels, and in Acts. Remember, Jesus got in the boat with disciples, in the middle of the lake, and they were immediately at the far shore. People were amazed, remember? Philip disappeared from the eunuch and showed up on the coast dozens of kilometers away.

My opinion again, I suspect that technology will be replaced by something better, more powerful, and an asset to the daily lives of all. Cars, TVs, phones, computers, Internet, and so on will have no use. That will certainly be true for us. I'm thinking it will be true for the rest of the Kingdom, also.

Entertainment: The days of mass market spectator entertainment on radio, TV, and online may be over entirely. Porn will be gone, of course. But the mental porn of unrestricted intellectual filth will be gone also. War and violence will be gone. People will do things that are fun—together. There will be different standards, aligned with the wisdom and love of the King, and how the activity builds up community.

Creatives: Will we have singers, artists, dancers, writers, speakers, makers and all the other varieties of creative people? I'm sure we will, and that they'll be available on the earth. How this will work out is beyond me—but Hollywood will be destroyed, along with Bollywood and all the rest.

Sports will be things we do for fun. The whole idea of professional spectator sports will probably disappear. Athletics as they are now handled will be seen as a strange historical perversion.

Communication technology: Married to the King, we will all have direct communication with each other. Far beyond telepathy, consider how you communicate with Jesus now. I talk with Him constantly, all day long. And they are conversations, not requisitions. I've shared actual techniques for doing this in many of my writings.

Will this be available to the people on earth during the millennium? Quite possibly. At the very least, all they'll need to do is talk to the King or His spouse and direct communication will be instantaneous. Again, my opinion, I suspect that Jesus will have a way for “normal people” to communicate like we will as His Spouse.

Bottom line? Telephone, radio, TV, social media, and so on will be seen for what they are—crude methods which are used to separate people. How often I've wished I could simply join my online friend and actually communicate.

Medical and healing people and groups: With Jesus as King, why will this be necessary? Shrinks, counselors, and the like will almost certainly be of little use. But I find it hard to believe that disease or congenital defects will be there.

Scripture talks about how a person dying as a child of a hundred years old will be almost unheard of. On the earth, the long ages common pre-Flood will be back to some degree. We may need someone to repair physical damage, for falls, and so on. But, I'm confident that this will be something taken care of by us—as a result of our oneness with the King. I suspect it will largely be a prayer function, but I have no idea how prayer will change in the Kingdom. It seems obvious that this will be part of our work as His Spouse.

The legal system: It will no longer be needed or desirable. Our Messiah will dispense rulings as needed. This is where He replaces the law.

Education: This is a big one. The worldly education system has become a source of evil, confusion, and lies to our youth and our society. I remember, even as a heathen, it took many years to recover from the lies I was fed as a fine artist.

They actually taught us that fine artists were the prophets of mankind. We were part of the elite leaders of society. I was graduated with an even more massive ego than I had getting out of high school. And that was bad enough. Many fine artists have a tenuous hold on reality as it is. We all really needed mentoring and help. But we were taught that, as artists, good was defined as what we like.

If we focused enough to embody what we liked, the result would be prophetic, societal change as the result of our efforts. I'm not kidding. It took well over a decade to even begin to get over that. That change started when I prostituted myself by working as a commercial artist for money. The Lord introduced me to creative expression as a service to others.

But, all the degree programs are on the same level of non-reality. Remember, public education was the designed solution to indoctrinate the masses with secular humanism. They were having a horrible time getting anyone to accept that drivel in the thirties.

Military & police: War will be no more. It's really going to be different. I don't know how physical problems will be dealt with—if they exist.

Our religious system will change

Currently, the worldly religion is secular humanism. Even the Supreme Court has ruled that is a religion. This set of beliefs has many large negative effects on society as a whole and us as individuals. A lot of it revolves around things and lies. Here are some more things which will almost surely disappear in the millennium.

Marketing: This is based on using lustful desires and covetousness, along with the promoted need for having as much as our neighbors do. Lying is an acceptable tactic. All of this is fleshy, in the extreme. It is coupled with the idea of destroying the reputation of our competition to advance our status, power and influence, and financial blessings.

It should be replaced by recommendations from trusted friends, advisors, and elders. Plus, the Lord will be available. I can't tell you how many times I'm ready to buy something, and then I ask the Lord about it. He often replies that I won't like it, if I get it. So, I don't buy it.

My hope is that mentoring and apprenticeships will become the norm again.

This is only a partial listing of possibilities

My goal is to get you thinking about how different it will be. Like many of us have said recently. We are never going back to the old “normal”. The changes we are experiencing are not going to disappear. America as we knew it has been dealt a death blow from among ourselves. Things will continue to degenerate and get worse until the Lord touches down on the Mount of Olives—with us right behind Him, watching it all.

I can hardly wait! Maranatha!

The remodeling & cleanup of earth

 It's much more extensive: than you thought

When most people consider what is coming in the final seven years, they are overwhelmed by the disasters—with good reason. But it is much more than that. The Lord's plan is to bring it back to where he can say again, "It is good."

It will be nothing like the total rebuild after the millennium, when the current creation dissolves in that great fireworks display. At that point, things are still largely beyond my comprehension. One quick example, the New Jerusalem is not only fifteen hundred miles square. It is also fifteen hundred miles tall. If that were dropped on the earth, as we know it now, the planet would be destroyed, spinning out of orbit without control through the Universe. Our atmosphere is barely a hundred miles thick.

It will probably not be as extensive as the Flood. But the remodeling before the Messiah sits on His throne will be major—nearly beyond knowing. However, we are told a lot in the scriptures. Simple things like: all the islands of the sea will be gone, and the mountains will be laid low.

Verses 2:2-4 "In the last days, the mountain of the Lord's house shall be established on the top of the mountains, and shall be exalted above the hills, and all nations shall flow to it. Many people shall go and say, 'Come, and let us go up to the mountain of the Lord, to the house of the God of Jacob, and He will teach us of His ways, and we will walk in His paths.'

For out of Zion shall go forth the law, and the word of the Lord from Jerusalem. He shall judge among the nations, and shall rebuke many peoples; and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning hooks; nation shall not lift up sword against nation, nor shall they learn war any more."

4:4-6 "When the Lord has washed away the filth of the daughters of Zion and has purged the blood of Jerusalem from the midst by the spirit of justice and by the spirit of burning, then the Lord will create upon every dwelling place of Mount Zion, and upon her assemblies, a cloud and smoke by day and the shining of a flaming fire by night. For over all the glory shall be a covering. There shall be a tabernacle for a shadow in the daytime from the heat, and for a place of refuge, and for a shelter from storm and from rain."

11: 6-9 "The wolf also shall dwell with the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the young goat, and the calf and the young lion and the fatling together; and a little child shall lead them. The cow and the bear shall graze; their young ones shall lie down together; and the lion shall eat straw like the ox. The nursing child shall play by the hole of the asp, and the weaned child shall put his hand in the viper's den.

They shall not hurt or destroy in all My holy mountain, for the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea.

24: 3-6: "The earth will be completely laid waste and completely plundered, for the Lord has spoken this word. The earth dries up and crumbles away, the mainland dries out and crumbles away, the exalted of the people of the earth dwindle. The earth is also defiled by its inhabitants, for they violated laws, altered statutes, and broke the everlasting covenant. Therefore, a curse devours the earth, and those who live on it suffer for their guilt. Therefore, the inhabitants of the earth decrease in number, and few people are left."

30: 23-26: “Then He shall give you rain for the seed which you shall sow in the ground and bread of the increase of the earth. And it shall be rich and plentiful. On that day your cattle shall feed in large pastures. The oxen likewise and the young donkeys that work the ground shall eat cured fodder, which has been winnowed with the shovel and fork. There shall be on every high mountain and on every high hill rivers and streams of waters in the day of the great slaughter, when the towers fall. Moreover the light of the moon shall be as the light of the sun, and the light of the sun shall be sevenfold, as the light of seven days, in the day that the Lord binds up the breach of His people and heals the wound from His blow.

Clearly, this barely touches what the Lord has told us already about what the earth will be like when the Messiah rules

But I wanted to give us a place to begin our conversation. You need to stretch your mind a bit. I agree, we are stuck with speculation. Did you notice, “the exalted of the people of the earth dwindle?” But I believe the Lord wants you to see the possibilities. If “There shall be on every high mountain and on every high hill rivers and streams of waters”, then mountains have changed a lot. If Mount Zion is the tallest mountain on earth, and there are streams and rivers up there, [plus we’re told that all the mountains are laid low when the islands disappear] then Mount Zion is not over 33,000 feet tall—probably more like 7,000 feet.

In my book, The Training Place of Mankind I shared parts of God’s viewpoint of the end.

The nations raged, the kingdoms were moved; He uttered His voice, the earth melted. [PSALM 46:6 NKJV]

The earth and all who dwell in it melt; it is I who have firmly set its pillars. [PSALM 75:3 NASB]

The Lord is king! Let the earth rejoice! Let the farthest coastlands be glad. Dark clouds surround him ... Fire spreads ahead of him and burns up all his foes. His lightning flashes out across the world. The earth sees and trembles. The mountains melt like wax before the Lord. [PSALM 97: 1–5 NLT]

Habakkuk told us:
When he stops, the earth shakes. When he looks, the nations tremble. He shatters the everlasting mountains and levels the eternal hills. He is the Eternal One! [HABAKKUK 3:6 NLT]

As usual, Isaiah sums it all up for us:
For see, the day of the Lord is coming—the terrible day of his fury and fierce anger. The land will be made desolate, and all the sinners destroyed with it.

The heavens will be black above them; the stars will give no light. The sun will be dark when it rises, and the moon will provide no light.

"I, the Lord, will punish the world for its evil and the wicked for their sin. I will crush the arrogance of the proud and humble the pride of the mighty.

I will make people scarcer than gold—more rare than the fine gold of Ophir. For I will shake the heavens. The earth will move from its place when the Lord of Heaven's Armies displays his wrath in the day of his fierce anger." [ISAIAH 13: 9–13 NLT]

The millennium will start fresh with few people. Maybe millions, maybe only hundreds of thousands, maybe less. Think a minute, the Earth will be moved from its place. Many people believe our severe seasons were caused when the earth tilted on its axis during the time of the Flood. Those were the days of a single continent, Pangea. The continents didn't break up until we read in Genesis 10: 25, that during the days of Seth's grandson "The name of one was Peleg, for in his days the earth was divided." The remodeling to prepare for the millennium will see similar levels of creation and recreation.

If the Earth's axis shifts back, dangerous weather may be gone. With cattle grazing on the tops of the mountains with the rivers and streams up there, those hills may only be a few thousand feet tall. It's a lot nicer and cooler up there. We might see dinosaurs again, but I doubt that. He didn't even put them on the ark. But it's going to be very different. People have no idea about the power of the Lord.

The Lord lays it out clearly. In Ezekiel, He writes:

"I will set up one shepherd over them, and he shall feed them, even My servant David. He shall feed them himself and be their shepherd. I the Lord will be their God, and My servant David shall be prince among them. I the Lord have spoken.

I will make with them a covenant of peace and will cause the wild beasts to cease from the land so that they dwell safely in the wilderness and sleep in the woods. I will make them and the places all around My hill a blessing. And I will cause the showers to come down in their season. They shall be showers of blessing. The tree of the field shall yield its fruit, and the ground shall yield its increase, and they shall be safe in their land...

They shall no more be a prey to the nations, nor shall the beast of the land devour them. But they shall dwell safely and no one shall make them afraid. I will raise up for them a planting place of renown, and no more shall they be consumed with hunger in the land, nor shall they bear the shame of the nations anymore." [EZEKIEL 34: 23-29 MEV]

It is said more concisely in Isaiah,

"For the Lord shall comfort Zion, He will comfort all her waste places; He will make her wilderness like Eden, and her desert like the garden of the Lord joy and gladness shall be found in it, thanksgiving, and the voice of melody." [ISAIAH 51:3 MEV]

It's all the coming "times of restoration of all things" (ACTS 3:21) spoken by Peter. We see one marvelous example in Ezekiel's description of the water flowing out from the Millennial Temple next to Jerusalem:

"...it was a river that I could not pass over, for the water had risen, enough water to swim in, a river that could not be passed over. [Ezekiel's angelic guide] said to me, "Son of man, have you seen this?" Then he brought me and caused me to return to the brink of the river.

"When I had returned I saw on the bank of the river very many trees on the one side and on the other. Then he said to me, "This water flows toward the eastern region and goes down into the valley, and enters the sea. When it flows into the sea, the water will become fresh. Every living creature that swarms, wherever the rivers go, will live. And there shall be a very great multitude of fish, because these waters shall come there and the others become fresh. Thus everything shall live wherever the river comes. It shall come to pass that the fishermen shall stand upon it. From En Gedi even to En Eglaim there shall be a place to spread out nets. Their fish shall be according to their kinds, as the fish of the Mediterranean Sea, exceedingly many. ... By the river upon its bank, on this side and on that side, shall grow all kinds of trees for food, whose leaf shall not fade nor shall its fruit fail. They shall bring forth fruit according to their months, because their water issues out of the sanctuary. And their fruit shall be for food and their leaves for medicine." [EZEKIEL 47: 5-12 MEV]

These trees sound remarkably like Trees of Life, and the Dead Sea becoming fresh water, full of fish, goes far beyond natural occurrences. There are many more delights scattered through the Prophets, and the Psalms. I wonder if we'll go back to the much higher oxygen content of the atmosphere in pre-Flood times? It won't be heaven and the New Jerusalem, but it will be very nice.

Revelation gives another glimpse of the transformations, "And there were noises and thundering and lightning and a great earthquake, such a mighty and great earthquake, as had never occurred since men were on the earth. The great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell. Babylon the Great was remembered before God, to give to her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of His wrath. Every island fled away, and the mountains were not found. [REVELATION 16: 18-20 MEV].

Please notice that the cities of the nations fell. That probably goes along with the one we already mentioned, from Isaiah, The day the towers fall. The arrogant, prideful skyscrapers will be laid low.

Jerusalem gives us another example of a good result. The pillar of cloud by day, and the fire by night will be back. Scripture tells us it's for shade by day to stay cool, and fire by night to stay warm. Nice touch.

The Lord made his plans clear.

"In an acceptable time I have heard you, and in a day of salvation I have helped you; and I will preserve you, and give you as a covenant of the people to restore the earth..."

They shall feed along the paths, and their pastures shall be in all desolate heights; they shall not hunger nor thirst, neither shall the heat nor sun strike them; for He who has mercy on them shall lead them, even by the springs of water He shall guide them. I will make all My mountains a road, and My highways shall be raised up...

And be joyful, O earth! And break forth into singing, O mountains! For the Lord has comforted His people and will have mercy on His afflicted." [ISAIAH 49: 8-13 MEV]

Just in case you're not sure yet.

"This is what the Lord Almighty says: 'In a little while I will once more shake the heavens and the earth, the sea and the dry land. I will shake all nations, and what is desired by all nations will come, and I will fill this house with glory,' says the Lord Almighty. 'The silver is mine and the gold is mine,' declares the Lord Almighty. 'The glory of this present house will be greater than the glory of the former house,' says the Lord Almighty. 'And in this place I will grant peace,' declares the Lord Almighty." [HAGGAI 2: 6-9 MEV]

Did you notice, the Lord said this time He is going to shake both the sea and land. There's a huge amount of stuff to get rid of: GMO [GENETICALLY MODIFIED WHATEVERS], all the pollution, the trash mankind has spread on the earth, and the list goes on. He obviously has a problem with cities and skyscrapers [probably minarets, also].

It will be a marvelous time

We can talk about it then. We'll have lots to talk about during the millennium.

Start your courtship conversation

 This is extremely important!

Start the conversation of life—this is the major advice for this age. I look around and listen to people. It's obvious many have never conversed with Yeshua. Your whole countenance changes when you know the Lord conversationally.

This is what is missing in the lives of those poor souls whom the Lord tells, "I never knew you. Depart from Me." It's a dreadful Response. [MATTHEW 7:20-23]

You cannot know a person unless you talk with him or her. That takes time — and we're running out of time.

Start the conversation immediately

Do it while you still can. There is a simple fact that never seems to occur to anyone. It's possible that this is the last chance for anyone to enter into this type of relationship with King Jesus. Once He marries His Bride, that might be it. Once the Bride is complete, it may be that no one else will experience that level of oneness with God.

Marriage is a unique core relationship in God's creation. This will be the originally designed union of Yeshua.

I see no scriptural hint that the people on the earth will get this opportunity to talk with the King intimately, personally. Jesus has put a lot of effort into gathering His Bride together. That's a strange concept, I know. But Biblical terms and names are not there by chance. They were placed there by the Holy Spirit. It's not for nothing that we are called His Bride.

These are the courting conversations of a betrothed couple

Right now, we are being courted by our fiancée. We want to know Him as He knows each of us. He truly enjoys the truth that each one of us is different. There is no mold or pattern to fill. We are to be ourselves, as transparent as possible. I was broken badly with a lot of damage—it's been fifty years of repair and rebuilding. I've spent a lot of time asking Him to show me how I was designed, and what my purpose is. Basically, it's been a surprising delight—for me. He's been joyful, observing as I began to grasp some of the concepts. Yeshua is really a joy to know.

You must ask for it

Something like, "Jesus, I want to learn about conversing with You. How should I do that?" He'll have your unique method worked out quickly. You will be amazed at what you've been missing.

Pray about openings, give hope

 Strangely, there's much resistance to this message

It goes beyond the surprisingly nasty attacks on the concept of a pre-Wrath snatching away. It seems to be tied into the rapidly increasing antisemitism. Evidently the idea of being called up to meet our King pushes the same button that the idea of God's Chosen People triggers.

Really, we can see all of this as an assault on Truth. It's hard to imagine the amount of vitriol directed at truth. Satan's plan is to change the rules and the laws. He knows that he needs sinful people so he can control them.

"It's my body. I can do what I want!" That's true. It's true for murder, rape, theft, lying, or any other sin as well. He or she can do what they want, but there are penalties to be paid—though wokeness says otherwise.

Seventy-eight or more genders! It's absurd. Genetically there are two, XX and XY—plus the extremely rare occurrence of major genetic abnormalities. But genetics doesn't even enter the conversation now.

I won't discuss the political puppets eager to do whatever it takes to get re-elected—or the Tech Giants' grasping for power and wealth. The problem is how to cut through all the confusion. But, this isn't new.

The solution is always the same—a lot of prayer, a listening ear, and a powerful move of the Holy Spirit. If you have not done it yet, this is the time when you need to ask Jesus to baptize you with the Holy Spirit. It must be asked for, like everything else. That was a major part of the message John the Baptist shared with all of us in the Gospels. [JOHN 1:32-34 MEV] The best procedure is praying in the Spirit and getting a powerful rhema [a targeted word of God provided by the same Holy Spirit].

It's time to polish up the armor

Truly, this is down and dirty spiritual warfare for the souls of your neighbors, co-workers, family, and friends. You need all your armor, fit to your personality, polished to get rid of any fleshly or worldly dirt. Then you need to stand, and help with the portion of the Harvest which the Lord of the Harvest sends your way.

You are going to have to take control of the enemy and bind him—moving him out of your way. Just pray under your breath as you meet them. Or, pray more vigorously while you prepare for your upcoming day.

The Lord expects us to take authority and clear the way in all our activities. Even an old curmudgeon, like myself, needs the slap upside the head. Still, after nearly fifty years, prayer is not automatic. It is a decision you make. I've done that several times in this chapter alone. Keeping this stuff as accurate as possible is beyond me. I need His help, here as I do everywhere else.

It's time to ramp up and get yourself focused

I believe most of you are, or you wouldn't be reading this booklet. But, I suggest taking the extra step and asking the Lord what else can you do for this final push. I'm convinced that He'll give you powerful help, as always. But, the rules include—He doesn't move on many issues until you ask, in faith.

It's not about the alleged power of your prayers. As always, it's about obedience. He shares His power through us. [As an aside, I wonder how this will be changed after the marriage supper?]

Our blessed hope, realized

 It can happen any day now, are you ready?

People always want to know about the twinkling of an eye. Who cares? We hear the trumpet and we're there—instantly! The only ones who hear are those who are praying, watching, and eagerly waiting for Him to come. We must be the wise virgins.

"Take heed to yourselves, lest your hearts become burdened by excessiveness and drunkenness and anxieties of life, and that Day comes on you unexpectedly. For as a snare it will come on all those who dwell on the face of the whole earth. Therefore watch always and pray that you may be counted worthy to escape all these things that will happen and to stand before the Son of Man." [LUKE 21: 34-36 MEV]

I ask you again, "Are you ready?" Hebrews makes it clear, also,

"...so Christ also, having been offered once to bear the sins of many, will appear a second time for salvation without reference to sin, to those who eagerly await Him." [HEBREWS 9:28 NASB]

Some day soon, it will be over, and we'll be with our husband eternally, from that point on

Yes, I understand that we are already. But the consummation will change things. That is why I feel such an urgency to share these things with as many people as I can. The time for speculation is nearly over. Soon, we will see all of this with our own eyes. Our observable reality will radically shift because we'll no longer be here on earth. Are you ready?

My banner for Christmas in 2021 [on the front of my house] says simply, The baby boy grew up! Here comes King Jesus! He's coming soon. Nowhere does the Bible say that we are to go out with a whimper.

In these days of fear, confusion, and wokeness, it is time to simply offer the world what we have: peace, joy, and the power of the Holy Spirit. Jesus gives us peace, security, freedom from confusion, healing, and whatever we need to live the wonderful, spiritual, life abundant.

Here comes King Jesus!

This is not a time to hold back—we have a wonderful message of power and joy! As threatening as the world seems, it has no real power. That power is all held by our Lord Jesus—and us. We have gifts to give which can transform lives. It's a message the world desperately wants and needs. They have just not figured that out.

It's time to intensify the serious spiritual battle to open the eyes of those around us to see that there is only one solution for the situation we are in. That answer is a person—King Jesus. Tell them the baby boy grew up and He offers real help in time of trouble. Let there be no doubt, it is a real time of trouble coming. Jesus told us that it would be so bad that He would cut the time short, a little, or else no one would survive it. The world is going to be cleansed of evil. The planet will be cleaned up. King Jesus will reign over a planet brought back to the health of Eden.

The change is just beginning and King Jesus will complete it

Never has it been more obvious that King Jesus is coming soon. All of creation had been waiting for the rebirth of Israel. The prophetic clock couldn't start in earnest until then. But it has started, over seventy years ago, and it is approaching midnight. Here comes King Jesus!

What a
to be alive!
Our King is coming soon...

Maranatha!
